You and your family are invited to take part in the

SW9 Community Housing Festival

“A week long festival of fun, trips and personal development”

This August, SW9 Community Housing will be doing something different.

We're staging a week-long festival of fun and informative activities for you and your family to join in with. From treasure hunts to training, theatre trips to theme parks, there's something for everyone this summer... and best of all, they're all free!

Just take a look at this leaflet to see what you want to get involved with. You'll need to register your interest to take part in some activities so make sure you've read the terms and conditions below. Have a great summer!
